Breathitt Wins Invitational Beat Hazard In Final, 71-63

Breathitt County's vaunted Bobcats ran their victory string to 12 straight here, Saturday night, by capturing the Hazard Invitational Tournament with a 1-63 victory over the previously unbeaten Hazard High School Bulldogs.

The loss was the first in seven games for Coach Gushel Ritter's Bulldogs. Breathitt, which trailed throughout most of the first half, got behind the shooting of Guard Bobby Deaton in the second half to overcome a 33-29 advantage posted by Hazard at half-time.

With star guard Larry Back on the bench most of the game with four fouls, Breathitt called on Deaton to carry the attack. Deaton hit for 22 points to take scoring honors for he Bobcats. The game was tied ten times until Center Patrick Janson put the Bobcats ahead to stay on a crisp shot with 2:32 remaining in the third frame.

Cobb Paces Hazard

The career of Hazard's attack was carried by Forward Ken Cobb who hit for 25 points—18 in the first half on four field goals and ten out of ten shots at the charity line.

A sensation throughout the tournament, Cobb took one-game scoring honors with 32 points against Hindman, and tourney scoring honors with 79 points for a three-game average of 26.3.

Breathitt County earned its berth in the finals with victories over Leslie County, 82-56, and Combs Memorial, 58-53.

Against Leslie in the opener Breathitt rocketed to an easy victory as Guard Larry Back hit for 18 points for scoring honors. High for Leslie County was Harold Pace with 14 points.

With Farmer "Bo" Begley as a thorn in their side, the Bobcats of Coach Fairce Woods were forced into a fourth quarter rally to beat Coach Roscoe Shackelford's Combs Memorial Shakers. Begley, who hit for 29 points, paced his teammates to a 41-38 lead at the end of the third quarter. Breathitt, however, rallied in the final stanza to win going away. Hazard moved into the semi-finals by throttling Fleming-Neon, 80-48, and by upending Billy Hindman's veteran quintet, 66-51. Cobb's 32 points was high for the Bulldogs; scoring honors for Hindman were taken by Guard Paul Conley with 16 points.

Combs Memorial got a semi-final berth with a hard-fought 65-56 victory over Coach Pete Grigsby's M. C. Napier Navajos.

Pushed for three quarters, Combs opened up in the final stanza when Begley hit for eight of his evening's 18 points. High for Napier was Center Billy Nickells with 22 points. Napier stayed within striking distance of the Panthers most of the game and was behind by but four points entering the final stanza.

Tournament attendance figures announced by Tourney Manager Roy G. Eversole were: adults, 2041; students, 4966.

P.H.A. Reveals More Money

Planning funds for 22 new low-rent homes have been authorized by the Public Housing Administration for the City of Hazard Municipal Housing Commission, Public Housing Commissioner Charles E. Slusser announced today.

Under a preliminary loan contract to be signed as quickly as possible with the Housing Commission, PHA will make a planning loan of $4,300.

Commissioner Slusser stated that Administrator Albert M. Cole of the Housing and Home Finance Agency has approved execution of the preliminary loan contract with the Local Housing Commission as required by law. Mr. Slusser explained that it will not be an annual contributions contract, but a planning loan that will in all likelihood culminate in such a contract.

Administrator Cole had previously approved a workable program to end slums and blight in Hazard. Localities with approved workable programs are eligible to apply for various types of federal assistance in carrying out their civic improvement campaigns.

Upon completion of preliminary planning of the low-rent housing, the Housing Commission will prepare development programs covering such details as sites, sketch plans, and estimated development costs of the new housing. This program must be approved by PHA, and upon authorization by Administrator Cole will serve as the basis for annual contributions contract between PHA and the Housing Commission.

School To Hold Christmas Party

The Hazard Business College will hold a Christmas party, Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the school in Allais. All former students and former students are invited to attend.

City Dedicates Plaque To Eversole

A Perry County native who has devoted his life to the advancement of education and athletics in the mountains was honored here Saturday night by the people of the town he serves.

A bronze plaque paying tribute to Roy G. Eversole, superintendent of Hazard city schools 14 years, was unveiled.

Eversole had just returned from Louisville for the finals of the Hazard Invitational Basketball Tournament and was not aware he was to be recognized by this community of 6,000. The plaque was presented to the City school system by Dewey Daniel, president of Peoples Bank.

Daniel told the basketball audience of about 1,200—who saw Breathitt County beat Hazard in the finals, 71 to 63—that Eversole has given much to the improvement of sports and education throughout this area and the state as well.

"Tonight we want to do something which should have been done a long time ago by honoring one of our native sons for the outstanding job he has done in the past and is doing today," he added.

Daniel said the plaque was being presented by both Hazard banks on behalf of all Eversole's friends as a permanent reminder of his contributions to our people.

The plaque reads: "Roy G. Eversole, in appreciation of a life dedicated to mountain youth."

1958."

A 1929 graduate of the University of Kentucky, Eversole first entered the City school system as an attendance officer in 1933, coming here from Jackson High School, where he was principal.

From 1934 through 1942 he was principal of the Lower Broadway Grade School. The following year he was named principal of Hazard High School, his alma mater. In 1944 he was appointed superintendent of the City school system.

He and his wife, the former Miss Hazel Irene Robinson of this county, are members of First Baptist Church. They have three daughters, Mrs. Rita Irene Fletcher of Hazard, Amy Eversole, a premedical student in her senior year at Georgetown College, and Mary Carole, a fourth-grade student here.

Active in State education and athletic circles, Eversole is a former director from Regions 13 and 14 of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association, a member of the board of directors of the Kentucky Association of Administrators, former president and presently secretary of the Upper Kentucky River Education Association, and a member of the American Association of School Administrators.

He is also past president of the Hazard Lions Club.

3 Minor Fires Hit Over Weekend

A rash of small fires over the weekend has prompted a word of caution from City Fire Chief Lawrence Sizemore.

Noting the cold weather, Chief Sizemore advised the public today to fire furnaces with caution to prevent them from overheating.

Chief Sizemore also warned against leaving children at home unattended during the cold spell.

Four minor blazes were put with little or no damage this week, Sizemore reported.

A short in a refrigerator outlet at the home of Taylor Ritchie, Highland Ave., at 1:25 p.m., Thursday, burned a kitchen wall slightly, Sizemore said.

At 1:40 p.m. the same day, city firemen put out a blaze in the basement of an apartment at 326 Laurel St. The blaze was caused when an unidentified man opened a gas line in the basement. Gas from the line was ignited by the blaze of a gas water heater.

Firemen extinguished a small blaze at the home of Elbert Duff, Wabaco, when a fireplace blazed a cedar chest. The fire at 7:22 a.m. Friday first ignited a cardboard backing in the fire place.

We're Not Alone!

Jailbreak

A Leslie County prisoner who was to be transferred to LaGrange today broke jail at around 11 p.m. last night at Hyden.

At large is Wesley Mattingly, 25, convicted at the current term of Leslie Circuit Court on a forgery charge and sentenced to three years.

A white, male, Mattingly is 5-8, weighs 150 pounds, and has red hair, State Police said today.

Sheriff Sizemore said this morning that Mattingly apparently used a crow bar to open the jail door in the county's new courthouse-jail on Main Street.

2 Charged Here With Robbery

Two residents of Fourseam have been charged with armed robbery in connection with the theft of approximately $100 from James Jerrell, Perry County.

Arrested Saturday night at a home in Cornett Hill were Barbara Hall and Ray Davis. The two were picked up by Deputy Sheriff Jeff Miller on a warrant sworn out by Jerrell.

They were also charged with adultery at the time of their arrest.

Jerrell told the County Sheriff's office he picked them up in his car at Fourseam. He said Davis and Barbara Hall abused him and took the money from him.

The woman was released from the Perry County jail this morning under $1,000 following examining trial in county court. Her case was waived to the grand jury.

Examining trial for Davis will be held tomorrow morning in county court.

First Snow of Year Blankets Perry County by 2 Inches

A slight fall of snow, Friday, and two inches early Sunday morning fell throughout Eastern Kentucky and blanketed Perry County in winter beauty.

City and State work crews were out early Sunday morning clearing streets and roads. Sun and traffic helped remove snow from most main thoroughfares later in the day.

Only Two Minor Accidents

Despite the snow, State Police reported only two minor accidents and both of these took place Saturday, when there was but little snow on the streets.

This morning, State Police and the State Highway Department reported all roads in Eastern Kentucky clear for traffic, but cautioned against slick spots. State Highway Department crews were distributing salt and cinders today on icy stretches along the Leatherwood road and on Ky. 15.

One local hospital reported several admissions Sunday for treatment of broken bones, apparently the result of falls caused by the snow.

The City Water Plant, reporting station for the U.S. Weather Bureau, reported .02 of snow fell Friday starting at around 4:30 p.m., and 1.75 fell Sunday morning. Snow started falling here Sunday at 1:15 a.m., and continued off and on until early Sunday morning.

Shoppers Turn Out

Apparently in response to the first snows of the winter shoppers turned out en masse Saturday, bringing smiles to the faces of Hazard merchants.

Business took a noticeable increase, according to most businessmen questioned today. Tonight, 27 city business start offering special Christmas hours for shoppers by staying open until 8 p.m. The hours will be observed from now until Christmas Eve, when most local business will observe their regular hours.

Firms staying open at night are: Ammars Store, Army Goods Store, Crafts Department Store, Combs Jewelry, Collins Store, Dawahares, Firestone Store, Goad Hardware Georges Shoe Store, Hazard Department Store, Holcomb Shoe Shop, Johnsons Department Store, Laslo Jewelry, Newberry's Store, Papanas Jewelry, Scotts Store, Stiles Jewelry, Steeles Department Store, Watsons Store, Western Auto, Willis Ready To Wear Hazard Furniture Store, Thrifty Shop and Baker Furniture Store.

New Wiring Installed

Recently completed here was re-wiring of most of Hazard by the Kentucky Power Co. Shown working here on East Main Street are two employees of the local power firm.

Eversole To Speak At Napier Banquet

Roy G. Eversole, superintendent of Hazard City Schools, will be principal speaker for the M. C. Napier football banquet at the school cafeteria.

W. P. (Bill) MORTON

I suppose it's only human to gripe, and, if everything were perfect, we'd all end up in nice, quiet institutions trying to pick the designs off the wall-paper.

It was only a few months ago that everybody was moaning around about how bad business was. Now, the same guys are back with the same kind of tear in their eyes complaining that "things are too good to last." This is sort of like throwing away a juicy steak because you're afraid you'll chip a tooth on the bone.

Maybe it's just my imagination, but it looks to me like the older this country gets the more things are leveling out — the hard times, when they come, aren't as bad as they used to be, and the good times get better and last longer.

Now, there's probably something worrisome in that, too, but I like to keep my worries closer to home — on whether I'm being what my friends and customers want me to be.

At Home Lumber Company our main concern is satisfying our customers. We're so busy doing that job we haven't much time to gripe about business conditions. Sure, we're always glad when business is good and we don't like to see it slow down, but we believe that if you treat your customer right, business will generally be good enough to keep us all eating regularly. We just keep concentrating on helping people to build new homes, remodel or repair their present one, and giving out good advice on how to do these jobs efficiently and economically. Come in soon and talk things over. We'll treat you right!

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest (Grandpappy) Sparkman. They are now living in their new home in Daniel Hills. Ernest will have no fuel problem. He heats with electricity and has two mine openings in his back yard.

1,000 Students Expected By 1965 In UK Med Center

One thousand full-time students are expected to be enrolled at the University of Kentucky's Medical Center when it reaches full operation in the mid 1960's, and that many more are expected in part-time graduate work.

According to a report from the center's planning group, preparations are being made for 300 medical students, 100 internes, 300 nursing students, 200 dentistry students and more than 100 in other fields of medical education.

The planning staff has estimated the hospital will treat about 11,000 patients per year. In addition, another 50,000 to 100,000 patients are expected to visit the outpatient clinic each year, and about 50,000 more will visit the dental clinic.

BLUE GRASS

Three Houses Burned At Lothair

"Mild Cyclone", hits Hazard, in the form of the Top Brass and General Ram Rods of the General Cable Corp., of Louisville. Mr. Ed Ward McVickers, whose home is in Garden City, New York, also A. M. Richard of 8405 Tobacco Road, Louisville, Ky., are in Hazard, on business for a few days. These gentlemen will visit this vicinity every six weeks, until the new Dial Telephone system has been completed.

They were guests of the wonderful LaCitadel Motel here, and they also were guests of the Grand Hotel on Main St. From both places they tell me their reception was the greatest. Mr. Richards subscribed to The Herald for one year. He says he will put this column in one of New York's largest newspapers. Come back and see us fellows, we will give you the best in hotel and motel accommodations.

New street has been paved in Taxi Alley, in back of Kentucky River Coal Corp. Building beginning at Stanley's Rest, running North to the Lykns Super Market Parking lot, also behind the Peoples Bank, and near our New Drive-In Bank. Try it out, it's a "honey".

Willie McIntosh of Grapevine was in Hazard Tuesday on business.

Church and Sunday School services were held in Blue Grass Pentecostal Church of God, Sunday, the Rev. Ira Kilburn, officiating.

Mr. Elihu Reynolds of Hamilton, Ohio will be in Hazard on business, around December 20, for about two days on business. Mr. Reynolds owns property on North Main Street, and usually stays at the Hibler Hotel on Main Street.

(Tobacco Road, is a new road only three weeks old leading out of Louisville).

Three houses burned late Wednesday afternoon at Black Gold Mining Camp, near Lothair two of the houses were unoccupied, one was the home of Mrs. Anna Pigman. The Hazard Fire Department did all that was possible, as there is no way for the fire engine to get across the river to the Camp. William Victor Gross, age seven, suffered a minor injury Friday morning. Emergency treatment by Dr. O'Donnell, soon brought relief to the lad who is now doing fine. He is the grandson of Mrs. Polly Gross, who operates two restaurants on Main Street, the Gross Steak House, and the Hazard Lunch.

The Hon. J. A. Smith, County Judge of Perry County, has returned from Louisville where he attended meetings of public officials, the past week Commonwealth Attorney Tolbert Combs also attended.

When you see a sign reading, "Cross Road", try to humor it.

Kentucky Power Completed Long-Range Project—E. Main And Woodland Served

Mr. A. R. Barber, District Manager of Kentucky Power Company, announced recently that the $136,000 long-range revamping of the Hazard distribution system has been completed.

With the ever-increasing demand of a growing community, the Kentucky Power Company set out in the early spring of this year to meet this demand by revamping the entire electrical system in the City of Hazard. Starting in the Walkertown section of Hazard which was then being served from the Hazard 3000 KVA substation at Lothair, they transferred this section to be served from the Combs 2500 KVA substation. This necessitated the rebuilding of a large section of line between the Combs Station and Walkertown. Small wire was replaced with larger wire and the voltage increased from 4000 volts to 12,000 volts which made the facilities adequate for all present and future demands in this area. The street lighting system in Walkertown was remodeled and changed to a more modern system known as the multiple circuit system.

Next, the business on Main Street section and parts of High Street and Broadway circuits were transferred to the Blue Grass 1500 KVA Station allowing more than adequate facilities for this section of town.

The East Main and Woodland Park sections are now being served from the Hazard 3000 KVA Station at Lothair. This section required a considerable amount of new construction due to the street widening project by the City. Eighteen new poles were installed along this street, new and larger wire was installed, and the transformer capacity along this street was re-spaced to furnish adequate service to this growing business section of Hazard.

Another circuit, known as the Hazard No. 1 circuit, serves the Baker Hill and Backwoods sections of Hazard. It, too, is served from the Hazard 3000 KVA Station at Lothair. With these additional circuits from the Combs Substation serving the Walkertown area and the Blue Grass circuit serving the business section of Hazard, it is now possible to equalize the load in the town of Hazard and to furnish adequate and constant service at all times.

In addition to the circuits being new and well balanced, they are also interchangeable. Should a fault occur on any one of the circuits, it is now possible to change to another circuit; and power will be restored within minutes.

To sum up this new revamping of the Hazard electrical system, it will now enable Kentucky Power Company to maintain a high quality of service and to take care of most any present or future electrical requirements.

In order not to cause any inconvenience to their customers, most of this work was done while the lines were in service; and when an outage was required, the work was done in the very early hours of the mornings on Sundays.

Even though it required an expenditure of $136,000 to complete this project, the Kentucky Power Company is proud to know that they are now able to furnish adequate electrical service for this continually growing community at reasonable cost.

The Pike County native, long active in Democratic Party affairs, said she was making her announcement on the 13th "because I have always felt that this was my lucky number—I was the youngest of 13 children in my family and was born in 1913."

Park Dedication, Festival Promote Eastern Kentucky

Big names and pageantry will promote tourist trade in Eastern Kentucky next summer.

Lt. Gov. Harry Lee Waterfield has announced promotional plans to be climaxed by dedication of Cumberland Gap National Park July 4. President Eisenhower is being asked to dedicate the new park that overlooks Tennessee and Virginia near Middlesboro.

Waterfield assigned Deputy Commissioner George Carr Gantner and Eastern Kentucky Governor Chandler's press secretary, to coordinate efforts of Kentucky, Virginia and Tennessee promotion specialists.

For a week preceding July 4, towns in the three states within 125 miles of the park will sponsor festivals re-enacting famous historical events.

At Paintsville, for example, will be depicted the life of Jennie Wiley, who was captured by Indians and later escaped to a fort in Johnson County. In such other towns as Prestonsburg, London and Berea, festivals will be given.

Tourists entering each end of Eastern Kentucky will have something to see every day before the park dedication. Gantner said the campaign could lure at least 100,000 visitors.

Waterfield declared, "It will be a prime objective of this promotion to acquaint all Americans with the scenic beauty and the historic background of Eastern Kentucky and the great forward strides it has made."

Among civic leaders cooperating are Maurice Henry, president of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, and Clinton and Cincinnati, with final auditions at the amphitheater site at My Old Kentucky Home, Bardstown, in March.

Broadwater, president of Beautiful Cumberlands, both of Middlesboro and S. C. Van Curen, managing editor of the Harlan Daily Enterprise.

Candidates are advised to request applications for roles from the Stephen Foster Drama Assn., Bardstown, producer of the drama.

The producer is looking for an outstanding actor for the lead, about 28-30 years old, six feet tall, dark complexioned, with light frame and youthful vigor, who plays the piano and sings a fine high baritone.

The play, "The Stephen Foster Story," is written by Paul Green, author of "Wilderness Road," which was seen by 162,000 persons in four seasons at Berea.

The drama has 56 actors, singers and dancers, plus 16 technicians. Especially sought are low bass and high lyric tenor voices for the chorus and six banjo pickers for a minstrel scene.

All actors must be able to carry a voice part in the singing ensemble and all chorus members must be able to perform minor speaking roles. Singers who play brass instruments will have preference.

Persons applying for assignments in the play will receive notification of audition appointments.

Third Green Co. Oil Map Being Issued in Lexington

A third edition of the Kentucky Geological Survey's oil and gas map of Green Co. is now being issued by the survey office at the University of Kentucky. The map gives the location of more than 700 wells and identifies 650 of them. Some of the abandoned ones cannot be identified.

In addition to the numerical index which was included on earlier editions, the new map contains a tabulation of wells arranged in alphabetical order by farm name as a cross index. Dr. Wallace W. Hagan, state geologist and director of the geological survey, said the Green Co. field is still the most active area of shallow oil exploration in the nation. Informal sources estimate production at better than 18,000 barrels per day.

Prayer of the Week

Our father who art in heaven, we come to thee hallowing thy name, for thou art God and there is none else. Remember our people here at their homes. And those who are scattered abroad. Bless all men and women who are in thy service and also bless our boys and girls who are in the service of our country, wherever they may be. May they call upon thee to pardon their sin. May they realize the word of God is not bound. Open thou the windows of heaven and pour us out a blessing, till there be not room enough to receive it. Send thy holy spirit to be our teacher. In Jesus name. Amen.
